John 17:2-3 – Jesus Grants Eternal Life; “As thou hast giuen him power ouer all flesh, that he should giue eternall life to as many as thou hast giuen him. And this is life eternall, that they might know thee the onely true God, and Iesus Christ whom thou hast sent.” (Remember that spellings are unique to the 1611 KJV.)

These verses in John are very clear and to the point, Jesus Christ has power over all flesh and is the grantor of eternal life so that we might know the one and only true God who has sent Jesus, the Son! We cannot be confused with this straight of talk and message that sets our relationship with God our Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. So with this statement made, listen carefully as you work through the rest of this chapter, also see Matthew 28:18

John has placed chapters 14-17 right after he tells Peter in chapter 13 that he will surely deny knowing him three times before the Cock will crow, so sometime in the night before morning, and so it was. John 17 is the prayer that Jesus speaks to his disciples that had been close to him minus Judas Iscariot, what lied ahead for each of them could not have been known to them, however Jesus knew and so he prayed; in Chapter 18 he steps the Garden of Gethsemane to again pray. Jesus often stepped away and went to a quiet place, spent time with the Father, and engrossed himself in prayer. It is no different for us today if we are called and we are living in God's will then we need time with the Father in prayer without it we drift at best and walk away from God at worst.

Prayer is very simple in a complicated way. How is that? God calls us simply to pray, seek him and search for him with all of our heart, when we do God answers and is present with us, we complicate it by thinking that we need to add something to what God is leading or maybe we feel we must be worthy to hear God. Our experience with God in Prayer is as unique as we each are made, God interacts with each of us in his own way by who we are, just like our kids, as parents with more than one child we learn that what works with one does not work with the other. Practice being silent with God until you feel led to pray then write down what is laid on your heart and keep doing that and God will open up a whole new world to your experience with prayer.
